

You Can Go Videos Discussion Guide

Instructions and purpose: Explore profiles of students who share how they turned their school ambitions into reality and overcame concerns about costs, grades, responsibilities, and feeling overwhelmed. With your mentor, explore these students' stories and the accompanying content to identify your own concerns about college and strategize how you will overcome them.

Learn from students about their experiences and tips for success

Go to <http://youcango.collegeboard.org/stories/cost> and watch the videos of students sharing their stories and review the accompanying website content. Go through the other tabs: "Grades," "Responsibilities," and "Overwhelmed." Discuss the following questions with your mentor:

- Which stories resonated with you the most? Why?
- What concerns you the most about going to college?
- What are some concrete ways to address your concerns?

Complete the table below so that you have a reference to help you. Expand the cells as needed.

Concern	Strategy	Resources