while books had long been central to the christian religious tradition education and culture they now became an important artistic medium sometimes decorated with brilliant colours and precious metals lawrence nees explores issues of artist patronage craftsmanship holy men and women monasteries secular courts and the expressive and educational roles of artistic creation he discusses early christian art within the late roman tradition and the arts of the newly established kingdoms of northern europe not as opposites but as different aspects of a larger historical situation this approach reveals the onset of an exciting new visual relationship between the church and the populace throughout medieval europe restoring a previously marginalized subject to a central status in our artistic and cultural heritage the prize winning new york times bestselling short story collection from the internationally bestselling author of lincoln in the bardo the best book you ll read this year new york times dazzlingly surreal stories about a failing america sunday times winner of the 2014 folio prize and shortlisted for the national book award 2013 george saunders s most wryly hilarious and disturbing collection yet tenth of december illuminates human experience and explores figures lost in a labyrinth of troubling preoccupations a family member recollects a backyard pole dressed for all occasions jeff faces horrifying ultimatums and the prospect of darkenfloxx tm in some unusual drug trials and al roosten hides his own internal monologue behind a winning smile that he hopes will make him popular with dark visions of the future riffing against ghosts of the past and the ever settling present this collection sings with astonishing charm and intensity humanities through the arts tenth edition continues to explore the humanities with an emphasis upon the arts as an expression of cultural and personal values examining the relationship of the humanities to important values objects and events the book is arranged topically by art form from painting sculpture photography and architecture to literature music theater film and dance four major pedagogical boxed features enhance student understanding of the genres and of individual works within the genres perception key boxes conception key boxes experiencing boxes and new focus on boxes intended for introductory level interdisciplinary courses offered across the curriculum in the humanities philosophy art english music and education departments this beautifully illustrated text helps students learn how to actively engage a work of art artistic creation and ethical criticism a study in philosophical aesthetics investigates an idea that underpins the ethical criticism of art but that is rarely acknowledged and poorly understood namely that the ethical criticism of art involves judgments not only of the attitudes a work endorses or solicits but of what artists do to create the work the book pioneers an innovative production oriented approach to the study of the ethical criticism of art one that will provide a detailed philosophical account of the intersection of ethics and artistic creation as well as conceptual tools that can guide future philosophizing and criticism ted nannicelli offers three arguments concerning the ethical criticism of art first he argues that judgments of an artwork s ethical value are already often made in terms of how it was created and examines why some art forms more readily lend themselves to this form of ethical appraisal than others he then asserts that production oriented evaluations of artworks are less contested than other sorts of ethical criticism and so lead to certain practical consequences from censure dismissal and prosecution to shifts in policy and even legislation finally nannicelli defends the production oriented approach arguing that it is not only tacit in many of our art appreciative practices but is in fact rationally warranted there are many cases in which we should ethically critique artworks in terms of how they are created because this approach handles cases that other approaches cannot and results in plausible judgments about the works relative ethical and artistic value the concise powerful arguments presented here will appeal to moral philosophers philosophers of art and aesthetics and critics interested in the intersection of artistic production and criticism and ethics humanities through the arts is intended for introductory level interdisciplinary courses offered across the curriculum in the humanities philosophy art english music and education departments arranged topically by art form from painting sculpture photography and architecture to literature music theater film and dance this beautifully illustrated text helps students learn how to actively engage a work of art the new sixth edition retains the popular focus on the arts as an expression of cultural and personal values the award winning poet carl phillips s invaluable essays on poetry the tenth volume in the celebrated art of series of books on the craft of writing in seven insightful essays carl phillips meditates on the craft of poetry its capacity for making a space for possibility and inquiry what does it mean to give shapelessness a form how can a poem explore both the natural world and the inner world phillips demonstrates the restless qualities of the imagination by reading and examining poems by ashbery bogan frost niedecker shakespeare and others and by considering other art forms such as photography and the blues the art of daring is a lyrical persuasive argument for the many ways that writing and living are acts of risk i think it s largely the conundrum of being human that makes us keep making phillips writes i think it has something to do with revision how not only is the world in constant revision but each of us is as well site specific art charts the development of an experimental art form in an experimental way nick kaye traces the fascinating historical antecedents of today s installation and performance art while also assembling a unique documentation of contemporary practice around the world the book is divided into individual analyses of the themes of space materials site and frames these are interspersed by specially commissioned documentary artwork from some of the world s foremost practitioners and artists working today this interweaving of critique and creativity has never been achieved on this scale before site specific art investigates the relationship of architectural theory to an understanding of contemporary site related art and performance and rigorously questions how such works can be documented the artistic processes involved are demonstrated through entirely new primary articles from meredith monk station house opera brith gof forced entertainment this volume is an astonishing contribution to debates around experimental cross arts practice a market leading cutting edge text for the art appreciation course understanding art combines its strong coverage of art history with comprehensive coverage and presentation of the visual elements principles of design and media to provide a well balanced discussion of

This volume is a basic art text for college students and other interested readers. It offers a broad introduction to the nature, vocabulary, media, and history of art, showing examples from many cultures. This book is a comparative anthropology and sociology of globalizing bioethics, exploring the global dissemination, local adaptations, cultural meanings, and social functions of bioethics theories, practices, and institutions. Regions considered include Africa, Asia, Australia, Central and South America, Europe, Middle East, and North America. The most widely used and respected book on writing fiction, Writing Fiction: A Guide to Writing Fictional Prose guides the writer from first inspiration to final revision, supported by an abundance of exercises. This guide anthology explores and integrates the elements of fiction while offering practical techniques and concrete examples. A focus on the writing process in its entirety provides a comprehensive guide to writing fiction, approaching distinct elements in separate chapters while building on what has been covered earlier. Topics include free writing to revision, plot, style, characterization, dialogue, atmosphere, imagery, and point of view. An anthology of diverse and contemporary short stories followed by suggestions for discussion and writing exercises illustrates concepts while offering variety in pacing and exposure to this increasingly popular form. The book also discusses key issues including writing workshops, using autobiography as a basis for fiction, using action in stories, using dialogue, and maintaining point of view. The sixth edition also features more short stories than any previous edition and includes quotation boxes that offer advice and inspirational words from established writers on a wide range of topics such as writing from experience, story structure, openings and endings, and revision. For those interested in developing their creative writing skills, a visually exciting experience, this book is a one-volume course in art appreciation. It introduces art theory and vocabulary, art media and disciplines, historic styles, and art forms of the recent past and the present. When the daughter of a comic book artist claims she has been raped at a party and her friends turn against her, she runs away to Alaska and her father must face his own violent past as he tries to find her.
