day he did it by night in spite of gideon's fear he was careful to obey the lord so what if he did it by night the fact is is that he did tear the altar down jack zavada updated on april 08 2020 the story of gideon in the bible is told in judges chapters 6 8 the reluctant warrior is also referenced in hebrews 11 32 among the heroes of faith gideon like many of us doubted his own abilities he suffered so many defeats and failures that he even put god to the test not once but three times gideon and his 300 continued to pursue the enemy until they captured kings and princes of the enemy armies gideon's victory won the respect of the hebrew nation they wanted him to become their king and lead the country gideon refused saying that god would lead israel the fear of gideon and his mighty army spread throughout the region gideon is often considered the poster boy for fear when god first commanded him to rescue the israelites gideon was hiding in a winepress to escape his enemies judges 6 11 throughout
