by daniel howell in consultation with a qualified psychologist in an entertaining and personal way from the perspective of someone who has been through it all this no nonsense book gives you the tools to understand your mind so you can be in control and really live split into three chapters for each stage of the journey this night how to get through your toughest moments and be prepared to face anything tomorrow small steps to change your thoughts and actions with a big impact on your life the days after help to look after yourself in the long term and not just survive but thrive you will laugh and learn but most of all this book will assure you that even in your darkest times there is always hope you will get through this night this is the night is a work of liturgical theology understood as a theology inspired or informed by the liturgies of christian holy week in the context of modernity in crisis it is an attempt to think with the principal liturgies of the paschaltriduum maundy thursday good friday and the great vigil of easter about human suffering the author works from an analysis of the structure of the christian paschal liturgies to offer an account of suffering that is more compassionate and honest than that of western modernity moreover this account is the theoretical correlate of an ethic performed by the paschal liturgies their structure and rhythm give rise not only to an account of suffering and its remedy but to a compassionate practice into which christians are called in both the philosophical and the popular imagination modernity is a context in which progress is the defining human telos because of this commitment to progress modernity is often allergic to the concrete pain and horror of suffering modernity sidelines suffering as an unfortunate but necessary moment in the course of human progress not infrequently because it is a byproduct of our progress our technical mastery of nature and leadership of global capitalization in this context suffering is more a concept than an existential fact or experience yet downplaying human suffering in this way creates even greater suffering by anesthetizing us to its effect on human beings some of the critics of modernity also criticize christianity as a religious version of the modern myth of progress or even as its very source inspired in part by the political theology of johann metz and by the liturgical scholarship of don saliers robert taft and others the author argues instead that in the liturgies of holy week the passion death and resurrection of christ form a context in which christians recognize human suffering not as an unfortunate moment on the way to salvation but as the very field of god s saving activity that divine activity is saving precisely as we enter into it by practice to be saved to enter into an abundant and vigorous human life is to become a priestly people orienting ourselves toward suffering in the same way that jesus christ did facing it with courage where necessary and
