place where people come together to share powerful emotional experiences from the fear generated by horror films and the anxiety induced by thrillers to the laughter elicited by screwball comedies and the tears precipitated by melodramas indeed the dependability of movies to provide such experiences lies at the center of the medium's appeal and power yet cinema's ability to influence even manipulate the emotions of the spectator is one of the least explored topics in film theory today in passionate views thirteen internationally recognized scholars of film studies philosophy and psychology explore the emotional appeal of the cinema employing a novel cognitive perspective the volume investigates the relationship between genre and emotion explores how film narrative music and cinematic techniques such as the close up are used to elicit emotion and examines the spectator's identification with and response to film characters an impressive range of films and topics is brought together by carl planting and greg m smith including the success of stella dallas and an affair to remember as tearjerkers the power of night of the living dead to inspire fear and disgust the sublime evoked in the passion of joan of arc aguirre the wrath of god and the children of paradise the emotional basis of film comedy as seen in when harry met sally the use of cinematic cues in raiders of the lost ark and local hero to arouse emotions the relationship between narrative flow and emotion in once upon a time in the west and e t the emotive use of music in the elephant man and a clockwork orange stranger than paradise's sense of timing desire and resolution in casablanca audience identification with the main characters in groundhog day and the crying game portrayal of perversity in the silence of the lambs flaming creatures and shivers and empathy elicited through closeups of actors faces in yankee doodle dandy and blade runner passionate views offers a new approach to our understanding of film and will be of interest to anyone fascinated by the emotional power of motion pictures and their relationship to the central concerns of our lives as well as by the techniques
