personal possessions and other objects reveal the incredible stories of such amazing women as Phillis Wheatley, Julia Child, Sojourner Truth, Mary Cassatt, Madam C. J. Walker, Amelia Earhart, Eleanor Roosevelt, Mamie Till Mobley, Dolores Clara Fernández Huerta, Phyllis Diller, Celia Cruz, Sandra Day O'Connor, Billie Jean King, Sylvia Rivera and so many more together with illuminating text these objects elevate the importance of American women in the home, workplace, government and beyond. Published to commemorate the centennial of the 19th Amendment granting women the right to vote, Smithsonian American Women is a deeply satisfying read and a must-have reflection on how generations of women have defined what it means to be recognized in both the nation and the world. Gathers Diary Selections describes the historical background of each writer and discusses the changing function and content of diaries. Female Subjectivity in African American Women's Narratives of Enslavement is a new and innovative study of Black women's transformation which focuses on Black women writers who support the notion of separate location for a changed female consciousness. This book offers the concept of the transient woman as a new paradigm and feminist vision for analyzing female subjectivity and consciousness. Interweaving personal stories with historical photos and background, this lively account documents the history of the more than 40,000 women who served in relief and military duty during World War I through personal interviews and excerpts from diaries, letters and memoirs. Lettie Gavin relates poignant stories of women's wartime experiences and provides a unique perspective on their progress in military service. American Women in World War I captures the spirit of these determined patriots and their times for every reader and will be of special interest to military women's and social historians. An invigorating and inspiring take on the new ways American women are changing and improving our culture and the way we live from Kellyanne Conway, counselor to President Donald Trump, and Celinda Lake, a leading political strategist for the Democratic Party, women are the most powerful force reshaping the future of America. There is a newly defined unified power base among women that crosses all the usual lines of division: politics, race, religion, age and class. Heralding the most significant change in American culture in the past century, Kellyanne Conway, counselor to President Donald Trump, and President and CEO of the polling company, Inc. and Celinda Lake, a leading political strategist for the Democratic Party, two of the most prominent trend spotters and analysts in America demonstrate how women are rejecting outdated traditions in order to get what they want and need. They are breaking the old rules about when and whether to marry and have children, living fully and equally as singles and creating flexible, inclusive workplaces that don't sacrifice family or sanity. They are controlling 5 trillion annually as the primary purchasers of homes, cars, appliances and electronics. They are making their mark at ages twenty, forty, sixty and beyond. Drawing strength, inspiration and intellectual stimulation from other women using the eye-opening results of interviews, focus groups and polls, three of which were created especially for this book, Conway and Lake, who often fall on opposite sides of the country's most polarizing debates, come together to seek out what women buy, what they believe, how they work, how they live, what they care about, what they fear and what they really want. By delving beneath the hot button issues, Lake and Conway discovered common causes with which women are inventing a new age of opportunity, doing it their way and in the process improving life for all Americans. Labor Laws and Love, Yen Le Espiritu explores how racist and gendered labor conditions and immigration laws have affected relations between and among Asian American women and men, Asian American men and women. Documents how the historical and contemporary oppression of Asians in the United States has restructured the balance of power between Asian American women and men and shaped their struggles to create and maintain social institutions and systems of meaning. Espiritu emphasizes how race, gender and class as categories of difference do not parallel but instead intersect and confirm one other.
