The Jericho Road 1899 Émy life is a lovely story happy and full of incident if when i was a boy and went forth into the world poor and friendless a good fairy had met me and said choose now thy own course through life and the object for which thou wilt strive and then according to the development of thy mind and as reason requires i will guide and defend thee to its attainment my fate could not even then have been directed more happily more prudently or better the history of my life will say to the world what it says to meÑthere is a loving god who directs all things for the best my native land denmark is a poetical land full of popular traditions old songs and an eventful history which has become bound up with that of sweden and norway the danish islands are possessed of beautiful beech woods and corn and clover fields they resemble gardens on a great scale upon one of these green islands funen stands odense the place of my birth odense is called after the pagan god odin who as tradition states lived here this place is the capital of the province and lies twenty two danish miles from copenhagen in the year 1805 there lived here in a small mean room a young married couple who were extremely attached to each other he was a shoemaker scarcely twenty two years old a man of a richly gifted and truly poetical mind his wife a few years older than himself was ignorant of life and of the world but possessed a heart full of love the young man had himself made his shoemaking bench and the bedstead with which he began housekeeping this bedstead he had made out of the wooden frame which had borne only a short time before the coffin of the deceased count trampe as he lay in state and the remnants of the black cloth on the wood work kept the fact still in remembrance instead of a noble corpse surrounded by crape and wax lights here lay on the second of april 1805 a living and weeping child Ñthat was myself hans christian andersen during the first day of my existence my father is said to have sate by the bed and read aloud in holberg but i cried all the time wilt thou go to sleep or listen quietly it is reported that my father asked in joke but i still cried on and even in the church when i was taken to be baptized i cried so loudly that the preacher who was a passionate man said the young one screams like a cat which words my mother never forgot a poor emigrant gomar who stood as godfather consoled her in the mean time by saying that the louder i cried as a child all the more beautifully should i sing when i grew older

York and other cities several characters in the story are sketched from life the necessary information has been gathered mainly from personal observation and conversations with the boys themselves the author is indebted also to the excellent superintendent of the newsboys lodging house in Fulton Street for some facts of which he has been able to make use some anachronisms may be noted wherever they occur they have been admitted as aiding in the development of the story and will probably be considered as of little importance in an unpretending volume which does not aspire to strict historical accuracy

Symons's Monthly Meteorological Magazine 1907 thirty of Hans Christian Andersen's most cherished stories in single volumes illustrator various artists known all over the world these fairytales hold stories of great value and are a source of inspiration for both young and old

Symons's Meteorological Magazine 1885 it is not every day that a 16 year old writes a book in fact girls and boys of that age are supposed to spend their time studying what other people write it is presumed that at that age they do not themselves have anything significant or interesting to say and the education system guarantees just that the best rewards go to those who can parrot set answers to set questions in examination halls those who try to use their imagination or reply differently are often punished with low grades
