out a call for renewed feminist action based on the spirit and ethic of love kirkus reviews a decade before the seneca falls convention black and white women joined together at the 1837 anti slavery convention of american women in the first instance of political organizing by american women for american women incited by holy indignation these pioneers believed it was their god given duty to challenge both slavery and patriarchy although the convention was largely written out of history for its religious and interracial character these women created a blueprint for an intersectional feminism that was centuries ahead of its time part historical investigation part personal memoir hunt traces how her research into nineteenth century organizing led her to become one of the most significant philanthropists in modern history her journey to confront her position of power meant taking control of an oil fortune that was being deployed on her behalf but without her knowledge and acknowledging the feminist faith animating her life s work following the example of st ignatius we believe that praying the examen will lead to a better life the 500 year old daily practice of honest self assessment and reflection is a founding principle of ignatian spirituality what we don t know is if st ignatius ever felt like changing it up a bit jesuit speaker and author mark thibodeaux sj is
