The Caribbean Story Finder* 2017-09-11 from two internationally recognized experts in the field of gifted education comes this timely exploration of how best to nurture a child's unique gifts and set them on a path to a happily productive life in school and beyond. What is intelligence? Is it really a have or have not proposition as we've been led to believe? Are some children just destined to fall behind? Dona Matthews and Joanne Foster answer those questions with a resounding no. In Beyond Intelligence they demonstrate that every child has the ability to succeed with the right support and guidance, but how can parents provide that support? Matthews and Foster proceed from the assumption that knowledge is power, offering parents an information-packed guide to identifying a child's ability, fostering creativity, and bolstering effort and persistence. Using case studies and anecdotes from their personal and professional experience, they explore different ways of learning, the links between creativity and intelligence, and how to best provide emotional and social supports. They offer critical advice on how to work cooperatively with schools and educators and address how to embrace failures as learning opportunities. Drawing on the latest research in brain development and education theory, Beyond Intelligence is a must-read for today's parents and educators.

Mustafa 2018-08-01 from the celebrated author of February and Caught comes an exhilarating new novel that asks what makes a family, how does it shape us, and can we ever really choose who we love? As the snowstorm of the century rages, twenty-one-year-old Xavier is beaten and stabbed in a vicious attack. His mother, Jules, must fight her way through the shuttered streets of St. John's to reach the hospital where Xavier lies unconscious. When a video of the attack surfaces, Jules struggles to make sense of what she sees in the footage and of what she can't quite make out. While Xavier's story unfolds, so too do the stories that brought him there. Here, across families and generations, are stories of mothers, fathers, sisters, and brothers of children cared for, neglected, lost, and re-found. Of selfless generosity and reluctant debt, above all, Moore in the inimitable largesse of her art paints a shimmering portrait of the sacrifice, pain, and wild joy of loving. A tour de force of storytelling and craft, this is how we love. Brings us a cast of characters so rich and true they could only have been written by Lisa Moore.
