economic area can study in the uk each student must be sponsored by educational institutions licensed by the uk border agency and cannot change college without applying to the agency sponsoring colleges are responsible for judging students intentions to study tier 4 though was implemented before the key controls were in place based on college enrolment rates and changes in application patterns the nao estimates that in its first year of operation between 40 000 and 50 000 individuals may have entered the uk via tier 4 to work rather than to study the agency did not check that those who entered the uk as students were attending college and has taken little action to prevent and detect students overstaying or working in breach of their visa conditions because the agency regards them as low priority compared to illegal immigrants and failed asylum seekers the agency has removed 2 700 students since 1 april 2009 but has been slow to withdraw students leave to remain in the uk where it has cause to do so and currently does little to ensure that people leave the uk when their visa extension requests have been refused new controls and a fully documented compliance strategy were introduced in 2011 that are likely to reduce the number of problem students but ways to measure its success and establish the full cost of tier 4 related activities are still necessary to
