protect their children from the increasingly violent and sexualized content of movies tv the internet and music as well as cyberbullying and obsessive cell phone texting but they fear that simply laying down the law will alienate their kids can parents stay connected to the media while staying connected to god and to each other this book makes a powerful case for teaching kids media discernment but doesn t stop there it shows how to use teachable moments evidence from research and pop culture scripture questions parental example and a written family entertainment constitution to uphold biblical standards without damaging the parent child relationship national bestseller from a leading child psychologist comes this groundbreaking new understanding of children s behavior offering insight and strategies to support both parents and children nominated for malcolm gladwell susan cain adam grant and daniel h pink s next big idea club over her decades as a clinical psychologist dr mona delahooke has routinely counseled distraught parents who struggle to manage their children s challenging sometimes oppositional behaviors these families are understandably focused on correcting or improving a child s lack of compliance emotional outbursts tantrums and other out of control behavior but as she has shared with these families a perspective shift is needed behavior no matter how challenging is not the problem but a symptom a clue about what is happening in a child s unique physiologic makeup in brain body parenting dr delahooke offers a radical new approach to parenting based on her clinical experience as well as the most recent research in neuroscience and child psychology instead of a top down approach to behavior that focuses on the thinking brain she calls for a bottom up approach that considers the essential role of the entire nervous system which produces children s feelings and behaviors when we begin to understand the biology beneath the behavior suggests dr delahooke we give our children the resources they need to grow and thrive and we give ourselves the gift of a happier more connected relationship with them brain body parenting empowers parents with tools to help their children develop self regulation skills while also encouraging parental self care which is crucial for parents to have the capacity to provide the essential co regulation children need when parents shift from trying to secure compliance to supporting connection and balance in the body and mind they unlock a deeper understanding of their child encouraging calmer behavior more harmonious family dynamics and increased resilience parenting how to be a great parent and raise awesome kids best parenting books on amazon series vol 1 there s nothing like
