it started with a single look my obsession my desire and need to possess the sweet and incredibly naive elena romero dark raven hair and piercing green eyes she would make a beautiful bride ten millions dollars and a forced signature later and she was mine like a thief i came in the dead of night and stole her away from her protected castle and placed her in a gilded cage made of gold the deal had been made she would become my wife she would bear my children she would bend to my will but most importantly she would help me destroy the man she loved most the man who took everything from me her father this is a dark mafia romance that contains mature themes and graphic violence this is a complete standalone that ends with a happily ever after 100 000 words long there is no cheating either a 2017 national book award for young people s literature finalist when nina faye was fourteen her mother told her there was no such thing as unconditional love nina believed her now she ll do anything for the boy she loves to prove she s worthy of him but when he breaks up with her nina is lost what is she if not a girlfriend what is she made of broken hearted nina tries to figure out what the conditions of love are finally finally a book that is fully girl with all of the gore and grace of growing up female exposed carrie mesrobian author of the william c morris finalist sex violence cassandra leung s been a sea monster trainer ever since she could walk raising genetically engineered beast to defend ships crossing the neopacific until pirates snatch her from the blood stained decks sophisticated young readers will be awed by the delicate measured heartbreaking portrait that emerges kirkus reviews starred review as life slips away gabriel looks back over his brief twenty years which have been clouded by frustration and humiliation a small unforgiving town and distant punitive parents ensure that he is never allowed to forget the horrific mistake he made as a child he has only two friends his dog surrender and the unruly wild boy finnigan a shadowy doppelganger with whom the meek gabriel once made a boyhood pact but when a series of arson attacks grips the town gabriel realizes how unpredictable and dangerous finnigan is as events begin to spiral violently out of control it becomes devastatingly clear that only the most extreme measures will rid gabriel of finnigan for good perfect for fans of sliding doors kasie west s riveting novel pivot point follows a girl with the power to see her potential futures addison coleman s life is one big what if as a searcher a special type of clairvoyant whenever addie is faced with a choice she is able to look into the future and see both outcomes so when her parents tell her they are getting a divorce and she has to pick who she wants to live with a search has never been more important in one future addie is living with her mom in the life she s always known and is being pursued by the most popular guy in school in the other she is the new girl in school where she falls for a cute quiet artist then addie finds herself drawn into a murder investigation and her fate takes a darker turn with so much to lose in either future addie must decide which reality she s willing to live through and who she s willing to live without that spot is a short story written by jack london in 1908 i don t think much of stephen mackaye any more though i used to swear by him i know that in those days i loved him more than my own brother if ever i meet stephen mackaye again i shall not be responsible for my actions it passes beyond me that a man with whom i shared food and blanket and with whom i mushed over the chilcoot trail should turn out the way he did media expansion into the digital realm and the continuing segregation of users into niches has led to a proliferation of cultural products targeted to and consumed by women though often dismissed as frivolous or excessively emotional feminized culture in reality offers compelling insights into the american experience of the early twenty first century elana levine brings together writings from feminist critics that chart the current terrain of feminized pop cultural production analyzing everything from fifty shades of grey to pinterest to pregnancy apps contributors examine the economic technological representational and experiential dimensions of products and phenomena that speak to and about the feminine as these essays show the imperative of productivity currently permeating feminized pop culture has created a generation of texts that speak as much to women's roles as public and private workers as to an impulse for fantasy or escape incisive and compelling cupcakes pinterest and ladyporn sheds new light on contemporary women's engagement with an array of media forms in the context of postfeminist culture and neoliberalism this book examines emerging forms of governance in the arctic region exploring how different types of state and non state actors promote and support rules and standards the authors argue that confining our understandings of arctic governance to arctic states and a focus on the arctic council as the primary site of circumpolar governance provides an incomplete picture instead they embrace the complexity of governance in the arctic by systematically analyzing and comparing the position interventions and influence of different actor groups seeking to shape arctic political and economic outcomes in multiple sites of arctic politics both formal and informal this book assesses the potential that sub national governments corporations civil society organizations indigenous peoples and non arctic states possess to develop norms and standards to ensure a stable rule based arctic region it will be of interest to all scholars and students working in the fields of arctic sovereignty security studies global governance and international political economy a dark engrossing blood drenched tale of the familiar threats to female power and one girl's journey to regain it five starred reviews greeted this powerful story from elana k arnold author of the printz honor winner damsel you are alone in the woods seen only by the unblinking yellow moon your hands are empty you are nearly naked and the wolf is angry since her grandmother became her caretaker when she was four years old bisou martel has lived a quiet life in a little house in seattle she's kept mostly to herself she's been good but then comes the night of homecoming when she finds herself running for her life over roots and between trees a fury of claws and teeth behind her a wolf attacks bisou fights back a new moon rises and with it questions about the blood in bisou's past and on her hands as she stumbles home about broken boys and vicious wolves about girls lost in the woods frightened but not alone maddie lives in a world where everything is done on the computer whether it's to go to school or on a date people don't venture out of their home there's really no need for the most part maddie's okay with the solitary digital life until she meets justin justin likes being with people he enjoys the physical closeness of face to face interactions people aren't meant to be alone he tells her suddenly maddie feels something awakening inside her a feeling that maybe there is a different better way to live but with society and her parents telling her otherwise maddie is going to have to learn to stand up for herself if she wants to change the path her life is taking in this not so brave new world two young people struggle to carve out their own space this ebook includes a sample chapter of middle ground jag zenn vi and the rest of the resistance are determined to take down the thinkers but there is a traitor among them who could cost them their cause and their lives science fiction alien encounters and the ethics of posthumanism offers a typology of alien encounters and addresses a range of texts including classic novels of alien encounter by h g wells and robert heinlein recent blockbusters by greg bear octavia butler and sheri tepper and experimental science fiction by peter watts and housuke nojiri
